The chairman of the board of the general meeting

Daniel Proença de Carvalho

GALP ENERGIA, SGPS, S.A.
GENERAL MEETING

PROPOSAL FOR A RESOLUTION

It is proposed that the Shareholders approve the following resolutions:

1. To amend article 4 of the Articles of Association of Galp Energia, SGPS, S.A., by the deletion of numbers 3 and 4, with the consequent renumbering of number 5, which is to be considered the new number 3, on the following terms:
  1. (...).
  2. (...).
  3. [Corresponds to previous number 5].

2. To amend article 12 of the Articles of Association of Galp Energia, SGPS, S.A., by the modification of numbers 4 and 5, the deletion of point a) of number 5 and the consequent renumbering of the subsequent points, on the following terms:
  1. (...).
  2. (...).
  3. (...).
  4. Except where the law requires qualified majorities or where this agreement requires a qualified majority, the resolutions of the general meeting are taken by a majority of the votes cast, not counting abstentions.
  5. The resolutions of the general meeting concerning the following matters are only considered approved if accepted by a qualified majority of two thirds of the votes cast:
    - a) [Corresponds to previous point b)];
    - b) [Corresponds to previous point c)];
    - c) [Corresponds to previous point d)];

1. The share capital is eight hundred and twenty nine million, two hundred and fifty thousand, six hundred and thirty five euros, fully paid up and is represented by eight hundred and twenty nine million, two hundred and fifty thousand, six hundred and thirty five shares with a nominal value of one euro each, forty million shares being class A shares and the remaining seven hundred and eighty nine million, two hundred and fifty thousand, six hundred and thirty five shares class B shares.
2. Class A shares may be converted into class B shares upon a mere request addressed to the Company by their respective shareholder or shareholders. The aforementioned conversion shall become effective immediately upon such request, not being subject to approval by any body of the Company.
3. As long as it is not changed by law, ownership of class A shares must belong to public entities, within the meaning of paragraph e) of no. 2 of article 1 of Law no. 71/88 of 24 May.

Article 5.

1. The shares shall be non-certificated and nominative. Their conversion into bearer shares shall not be permitted.
2. The Company may acquire own shares, in the cases and conditions permitted by law.

Article 6.

The Company may issue bonds and any other securities, and the corresponding resolutions may be approved by the board of directors.

CHAPTER III
General provisions on the Company's corporate and representative bodies

Article 7.

1. The corporate bodies of the Company are the shareholders' meeting, the board of directors and the supervisory board.
2. Members of corporate bodies and the statutory auditor or firm of statutory auditors shall be appointed for renewable 3-calendar year periods. The calendar year in which they are appointed shall be deemed a full year.
3. Members of corporate bodies and the statutory auditor or firm of statutory auditors shall be deemed to be in office as soon as they are elected and shall remain in office until the election of those replacing them.

Article 8.

1. The remuneration of the Chairman of the shareholders' meeting and corporate bodies shall be established by a remuneration committee.
2. The remuneration committee shall be composed of three shareholders, elected by the shareholders' meeting for 3-year periods, and may be re-elected.
3. The position of member of the board of directors and member of the supervisory board is not compatible with that of member of the remuneration committee.
4. The remuneration of the directors may include a percentage of the profits for the year up to the overall limit of zero point five per cent of such profits.

Article 9.

The Company shall be bound:

- a) by the joint signature of two directors;
- b) by the signature of one director, when so resolved by the board of directors or if it concerns the exercise of specifically delegated powers;
- c) by the signature of those holding powers of attorney, in the terms of their respective powers of attorney.

CHAPTER IV Shareholders' meeting

Article 10.

1. Only shareholders with voting rights shall be entitled to participate in shareholders' meetings.
2. In order to participate in shareholders' meetings, a shareholder must have shares registered in his/her/its name up to five days before the date of the meeting in question.
3. Each share is entitled to one vote.
4. Shareholders that are legal entities may be represented in shareholders' meetings by any person, who may be appointed by any written means.
5. Shareholders that are natural persons can only be represented by a member of the board of directors, their spouse, direct ascendants or descendants or other shareholders, and the corresponding appointment may be made by any written means.
6. Except with regard to the State, a shareholder that wishes to be represented shall submit the corresponding powers of attorney to the Company and, in the case of legal entities, also designate the person who will represent it, no later than five days before the shareholders' meeting and in accordance with the law; the chairman of the shareholders' meeting may, however, authorise any shareholders that have not met the deadline established in this number to participate in the shareholders' meeting, provided that such participation will not disrupt the work of the meeting.

7. Shareholders not entitled to vote and bondholders cannot participate in shareholders' meetings.
8. Shareholders entitled to vote may vote by post on any of the items on the agenda by means of a recorded-delivery letter bearing a signature identical to that on their identity card, addressed to the chairman of the shareholders' meeting and sent to the Company's registered office, where it must be received no later than the day before the shareholders' meeting.
9. Any letter containing a voting declaration must be accompanied by a legible photocopy of the shareholder's identity card or, if the shareholder is a legal entity, the voting declaration must be signed by the person who legally represents the company, with this signature certified as such, and the letter shall also contain evidence of registration of the shares in respect of which the shareholder wishes to exercise its voting rights, in the name of the shareholder in a non-certificated securities account.
10. Any letters containing voting declarations shall be opened by the chairman of the shareholders' meeting at the beginning of the works and upon verification that the shareholder's meeting may resolve validly. The result of postal voting shall be announced in respect of each item of the agenda.
11. Votes cast by post shall be counted as votes against in respect of resolutions proposed after the votes were cast.

Article 11.

1. The Chairman of the shareholders' meeting shall conduct the meetings and draw up the corresponding minutes, without prejudice to the legal provisions on the Company's secretary.
2. The Chairman, composed of a chairman, a vice-chairman and a secretary, shall be elected by the shareholders' meeting.

Article 12.

1. Notice of shareholders' meetings may be given to the shareholders through its publication in the legal terms or, since all the shares representing the Company's share capital are nominative, this notice may be sent by registered letter or, to any shareholders that express their prior consent, by electronic mail with a request for a receipt upon having been read, sent at least 21 days before the date of the shareholders' meeting.
2. When meeting on first notice, a shareholders' meeting may only resolve validly if shareholders representing at least 51% of the share capital are present or represented.
3. The provisions of no. 4 of article 386 of the Commercial Companies Code shall not apply to the Company's shareholders' meetings.
4. Except where the law requires qualified majorities or where this agreement requires a qualified majority, the resolutions of the general meeting are taken by a majority of the votes cast, not counting abstentions.
5. The resolutions of the general meeting concerning the following matters are only considered approved if accepted by a qualified majority of two thirds of the votes cast:
  - a) approval of new strategic guidelines;
  - b) appropriation of the profits for the year or distribution of assets to shareholders;
  - c) issue of securities not falling under the powers of the board of directors;
  - d) proposals for strategic partnerships submitted by the board of directors to the Company's shareholders' meeting for approval;
  - e) approval of the Company's annual individual and consolidated accounts; and
  - f) merger, split or dissolution of the Company.

Article 13.

Without prejudice to meetings mandatory under the law, the shareholders' meeting shall meet whenever requested to the chairman of the shareholders' meeting by any other corporate body or shareholders, in the terms provided for in the law.

CHAPTER V Board of directors

Article 14.

1. The board of directors shall be composed of between eleven and twenty one directors.
2. The shareholders' meeting shall appoint the chairman of the board of directors and set the number of the remaining directors; failing an express resolution, the number of elected directors shall prevail.
3. The chairman shall call and conduct the meetings of the board of directors.

Article 15.

The board of directors shall have the powers defined in the law and in these articles of association, represent the Company in or out of courts, as plaintiff or defendant, having the widest management powers, as well as resolve on any matter relating to the management of the Company, being further entitled to confess, discontinue or compromise in any disputes, as well as in the context of arbitration proceedings.

Article 16.

1. Without prejudice to the provisions of the following numbers, the Company's board of directors shall operate in compliance with the Organisation and Operation Regulation approved by it for this purpose at the commencement of each term of office. The approval and review of this Regulation must be adopted by the majority stated in no. 1 of article 18. Failing approval of a new Regulation at the commencement of a new term of office, the Regulation from the preceding term of office shall remain in effect.

2. The board of directors shall meet at least once every three months and, additionally, whenever called by its chairman or two directors.
3. Meetings shall be called at least five days in advance.
4. Without prejudice to the provisions of article 18, the majority of its members must be present so that the board of directors may validly meet.
5. Directors may be represented by other directors in board meetings, by means of a letter addressed to the chairman in each meeting.
6. It shall be considered that a director is definitively absent when, without a justification accepted by the board, he/she does not attend three consecutive or any five meetings.

Article 17.

1. The board of directors may delegate the day-to-day management of the company on an executive committee, designating its chairman, the provisions of Article 16, adapted as necessary, applying to its working.
2. The executive committee may not deliberate on any of the matters referred to in Articles 18.1(a) and 18.1(b) except under the terms specifically described in the following number.
3. The executive committee may decide upon the matters referred to in points d), f), g), m), n), p) and p) of number 1 of the following article, provided these matters are delegated to it by the board of directors with the favourable vote of more than 2/3 of its members and they refer exclusively to undertakings controlled by the Company and not to the Company itself.
4. The deliberations of the board of directors referred to in the preceding number shall expressly designate the enterprises controlled by the Company relevant to the delegation of powers constituting the object of such deliberations.
5. The executive committee shall comprise between three and seven directors.

6. Members of the board of directors having executive duties shall be entitled to a retirement pension or pension complement or to an old-age or disability pension under the terms of the regulations that come to be approved by the general meeting.

Article 18.

1. The resolutions of the Board of Directors will be validly taken by a simple majority of the votes cast, except when they concern matters that are indicated below, including cases when they consist of the approval of proposals for resolutions to be submitted to the General Meeting or of the definition of a position to be adopted by the Company in the corporate boards of undertakings in which it has a stake, the approval of which requires a favourable vote of a qualified majority of more than two thirds of the directors:
  - a) approval of strategic investments and their financing;
  - b) approval of annual budgets and business plans, as well as changes thereto or deliberations not provided for therein, leading to an excess of 20% in any specific item of the said documents or to a 10% excess of the annual budget;
  - c) transactions with any entities related with shareholders in excess of the sum of €20,000,000.00;
  - d) designation of the senior management of the Company and of the companies it controls;
  - e) issue of bonds or other securities within the scope of the competence of the board of directors;
  - f) changes to the articles of association of companies controlled by the Company.
  - g) approval of strategic divestments by the Company or by the companies it controls;

- h) involvement in businesses not included in the Company's principal activities (principal activities are considered to be: exploration and production, refining, transport, marketing and distribution of oil and its derivative products and of gas, and production and marketing of electricity), particularly through the acquisition of holdings in companies operating outside the scope of these activities;
  - i) selection of strategic partners within the scope of the Company's principal activities;
  - j) approval and modification of the Company's strategic guidelines and strategic plan and of its respective business areas;
  - l) definition of the basic management and organisational structure, including delegation of powers by the board of directors on the executive committee or on one or more managing directors (including the positions of the members of the executive committee);
  - m) definition of the limits of the management autonomy of the companies controlled by the Company;
  - n) the split, merger and winding up of any companies controlled by the Company;
  - o) the entering into of parity group or subordination agreements by companies controlled by the Company;
  - p) distribution of dividends by enterprises controlled by the Company;
2. Postal balloting is allowed.

CHAPTER VI
Supervision of the Company

Article 19.

1. The supervision of the Company shall be entrusted to a supervisory board and a statutory auditor or firm of statutory auditors that shall not be a member of the supervisory board.

2. The supervisory board shall be composed of three members and a substitute elected by resolution of the shareholders' meeting, which shall also elect its chairman and the statutory auditor or firm of statutory auditors and the respective substitute.
3. The majority of the members of the supervisory board shall be independent, in compliance with the legal provisions on this matter.
4. In addition to other matters stated in the law, the supervisory board shall propose to the shareholders' meeting the appointment of the statutory auditor or firm of statutory auditors, the appointment or removal of the Company's external auditors, permanently monitor the business of the Company and its affiliates, observing their relations with the various corporate bodies, as well as give opinions on internal audit procedures or matters submitted to it in respect of the accounting practices followed by the Company.
5. The statutory auditor or firm of statutory auditors shall carry out any examinations and verifications necessary for the review and legal certification of the Company's accounts, as well as exercise any other powers attributed to him/her/it by law.

CHAPTER VII
The secretary

Article 20.

1. The Company shall have a Company secretary, to be designated by the board of directors.
2. When an effective secretary is designated, a substitute shall also be designated.
3. The term of the duties of the secretary shall coincide with the terms in office of the members of the board of directors that designate him/her.

CHAPTER VIII
Appropriation of profits

Article 21.

1. The net profits for the year shall be appropriated as the shareholders' meeting freely resolves, the restriction laid down in article 294, no. 1, of the Commercial Companies Code not applying.
2. The Company may distribute profits to the shareholders in the course of the financial year, provided that the conditions laid down in the law are complied with.

CHAPTER IX
General and final provisions

Article 22.

1. The Company shall be dissolved in the cases contemplated in the law.
2. The directors in office on the date of dissolution shall act as liquidators, unless the shareholders' meeting resolves otherwise.

Article 23.

Any disputes between the Company and its shareholders or other members of corporate bodies shall be submitted to the courts having jurisdiction over the place of the registered office.

INFORMATION TO SHAREHOLDERS

I. Participation in the General Meeting

In accordance with the legislation in force, who meet the following conditions, have the right to attend, discuss and vote at the General Meeting:

- a) At 00:00 am (UK time) of July 27, 2011 ( the "Record Date"), corresponding to the fifth trading day prior to the date of the General Meeting, the shareholders hold shares entitling to at least one vote;
- b) Shareholders that have stated their intention to participate in the meeting, by way of written document addressed to the Chairman of the General Meeting and to the financial intermediary with which they have opened the relevant individual securities account, until 11:59 pm (UK time) of July 26 2011. In order to do so, shareholders may use the forms available on Galp Energia's website (<http://aq3agosto2011.galpenergia.com>) or request them by the following email address aq3agosto2011@galpenergia.com;
- c) The financial intermediary who, has been informed of the shareholder's intention to participate in the General Meeting, under the terms of sub-paragraph b) above, has sent to the Chairman of the General Meeting, until 11.59 pm (UK time) of the Record Date, the information on the number of shares registered on behalf of its client as of 00:00 am (UK time) of the Record Date. In order do to so, the e-mail address aq3agosto2011@galpenergia.com may be used.

The exercising of these rights shall not be affected by the transfer of shares at any time after 00:00 am (UK time) of the Record Date, nor shall it be dependent on their blocking ("bloqueio") between such Record Date and the date of the General Meeting. Nevertheless, shareholders who having stated their intention to participate in the General Meeting, subsequently transfer title to their shares within the period from 00:00 am (UK time) of the Record Date until the closing of the General Meeting, shall immediately communicate such fact to the Chairman of the General Meeting and to the Portuguese Securities Commission. The e-mail address aq3agosto2011@galpenergia.com may be used for the purposes of the communication to be sent to the Chairman of the General Meeting.

Any shareholder who, as a professional, holds shares in his/her/its own name but on behalf of his/her/its clients, may vote in different directions with its shares, provided that, apart from the documents mentioned in sub-paragraphs b) and c) above, it submits to the Chairman of the General Meeting, until 11:59 pm (UK time) of the Record Date, by using sufficient and proportionate means of proof, the (i) identification of each client and the number of shares entitled to vote on such client's account and (ii) the voting instructions for each item on the agenda given by each client.

Each share shall entitle to one vote.

II. Right to Information at the General Meeting

Any shareholder may, during the course of the General Meeting, request true, detailed and clear information so as to enable him/her/it to form a grounded opinion on the item on the agenda.

The information requested will be provided by the Board of Directors and may only be refused if its disclosure may cause serious damages to the Company or to other company related thereto, or breach of a secrecy duty imposed by law.

III. Right to Insert Items on the Agenda

Under article 23-A of the Securities code, shareholders holding at least 2% of share capital may request the inclusion of new items to the notice of call of the general meeting of August 3 2011. This request shall be accompanied by a proposal of resolution for each item whose inclusion is requested. The items and proposals of resolution shall be disclosed to shareholders by the same means used to disclose this notice of call no later than 00:00 (UK time) of the Record Date.

IV. Right to Submit Resolution Proposals

Shareholders holding at least 2% of share capital may request the inclusion of proposals of resolution regarding items in the agenda of this notice of call or items that will be added to the agenda. This request shall be evidenced by written means in the five days following the publication of this notice of call, along with the information that shall accompany the proposal of resolution. These proposals of resolution and information shall be disclosed, whenever possible, to shareholders by the same means used to disclose this notice of call until 10 days prior to the general meeting day (August 3 2011).

If requests above are not followed, shareholders may seek a court decision regarding the call of a new general meeting to resolve on those items, under article 378, paragraph 4, of the Companies Code.

V. Representation at the General Meeting

Corporate shareholders can be represented at shareholder meetings by any person, and can communicate the appointment by any written means.

Private shareholders can only be represented by a member of the board of directors, by their spouse, by their relatives in direct line, or by other shareholders, and can communicate the appointment by any written means.

Except for the State, shareholders intending to be represented should submit the instruments of representation and, in the corporate shareholders case, should communicate who will represent them, at least five days prior to the General Meeting being held, and according to the law.

The representation mentioned in the previous paragraphs should be reported through letter addressed to the chairman of the general meeting, to be received at the Company's head office by no later than July 28 2011, save for the State. To that effect, shareholders may download the "Representation Letter", available at the website <http://aq3agosto2011.galpenergia.com>, to be submitted to the chairman of the general meeting, to the effect, can be used the following e-mail address aq3agosto2011@galpenergia.com.

VI. Vote by Post

Under the terms of Article 22 of the Portuguese Securities Code, Shareholders may exercise their right to vote by post. The shareholder should send to the chairman of the general meeting, at the Company's head office, a notice specifying the address where the ballot papers should be mailed, until July 27, 2011.

Alternatively, shareholders may download the ballot papers at the website <http://aq3agosto2011.galpenergia.com>. In such a case, sending the above-mentioned notice will not be necessary.

Shareholders with voting rights may exercise them by post, on each of the items on the agenda, through ballot paper, with a signature identical to that of the identity card, addressed to the chairman of the general meeting, and mailed to the Company's head office, by registered courier with acknowledgment of receipt, by August 2, 2011. The ballot paper, whose sample can be downloaded at the website <http://aq3agosto2011.galpenergia.com>, must be complemented by a readable photocopy of the shareholder's identity card, or, in case of a corporate shareholder, it should be signed by his legal representative, with a signature recognising him/her as such. Deliverance of this letter does not exempt the shareholder from sending the declaration of participation on the general meeting until 11:59 pm (UK time) of the day July 26 2011 and the Share Registration Declaration, issued by the financial intermediary responsible for the registry of shares in a securities account, until the end of the day of the fifth trading day prior August 3 2011.

In order to be considered valid, an explanation of vote must plain and unequivocally:

1. Identify the item or items on the agenda it refers to;
2. Specify the particular proposal it addresses;
3. Set whether the vote on each of the proposals is for or against it, clear and unconditionally.

Postal votes shall be considered negative vis-à-vis the proposals of deliberation put forward after the date those votes were issued.

The board of the general meeting will carry out the scrutiny of postal votes, by adding them up to the votes cast during the meeting.

The presence at the meeting of a shareholder who voted by post shall be assumed as a revocation of his/her vote.

According with the legal notice periods, information will be available at the Company's head office, and at the website <http://ag3agosto2011.galpennergia.com>, under article 289 of the Commercial Companies Code and article 21-C of the Portuguese Securities Code.

Likewise, this information (including ballot papers) can be requested by writing to the Company's head office or to the email address ag3agosto2011@galpennergia.com.

Additionally, on the disclose date of the notice of meeting of the General Meeting, the documents will also be available at the Securities Market Regulator website at www.cmvm.pt.

All communications being submitted to the chairman of the general meeting or to the Company should be mailed to "General shareholders' meeting — August 3, 2011, Rua Tomás da Fonseca, Torre A, 13th floor — 1600-209 Lisbon."
